Please incorporate Paragraph 9 of Defendant's Notice of Removal. This Proof of Summons serves as a response to that statement to ensure that all defendants are part of Plaintiff's cause of action.

I certify that I served a copy of the Complaint and Summons on the following defendants by mail, registered agent or commercial courier service that requires the defendant to sign a receipt and provides for return of that receipt to me.

The original document acknowledging receipt via registered agent was included with the original proof of service.

Plaintiff made substantial effort to send a copy of Complaint and Summons to each individual defendant via Certified Mail, Restricted Delivery, but these copies were returned to Plaintiff with notification from U.S. Postal Service and Postmaster that Defendants noted below refused to claim the letters.

For those Defendants marked with a letter "A" next to their name, first attempt for delivery was made on June 8, 2011; second attempt was made on June 16, 2011; mail was returned, via hand-delivery by Postmaster, "returned to sender" on July 8, 2011.

For those Defendants marked with a letter "B" next to their name, first attempt for delivery was made on June 9, 2011; second attempt was made on June 21, 2011; mail was returned to the post office June 28, 2011; a note requiring Plaintiff to pick up mail was left on July 20, 2011 and July 26, 2011; Plaintiff picked up returned mail on July 28, 2011.

For those Defendants marked with a letter "C" next to their name, first attempt for delivery was made on June 9, 2011; second attempt was made on June 21, 2011; mail was returned to the post office June 28, 2011; a note requiring Plaintiff to pick up mail was left on July 24, 2011; Plaintiff picked up returned mail on July 28, 2011.

Plaintiff argues that Defendants intentionally refused delivery of Plaintiff's documents because Defendants knew what the documents were and did not want to accept them or were advised by counsel not to accept any correspondence from Plaintiff.

Plaintiff further argues that refusing delivery essentially put Defendants on notice of said action. After all, it is not common practice for a law school to refuse delivery of documents from their students.

The original documents acknowledging refusal of delivery are attached.

This proof of service may no longer be required as Defendants are now represented by counsel, ROBERT H. WILDE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, P.C., 935 East South Union Avenue Suite D-102, Midvale, Utah 84047
